

BIG SANDY NEWS.

Aut inveniam viam, aut faciam.

VOL. VIII. NO. 46.

LOUISA, LAWRENCE COUNTY, KENTUCKY, JULY 14, 1893.

M. F. CONLEY, Publisher.

NEWS ITEM.

VENGEANCE.

It is stated in Kiev that Empress William has abandoned his present life to Norway.

The two-year-old child of Mrs. Weller, Peter, was killed at Columbus, Ohio, by an electric chair.

The Mexican government has decided to discontinue newspaper subsidies amounting to $100,000 annually.

The training ship left Washington Wednesday with three hundred apprentices, to be put to three months.

The Spanish government will prosecute the mayor of Pradellor for killing the victims of cholera in that town.

The Dunkirk (S. Y.) aldermen all bled a portion of that body and the mayor sent officers after them with warrants.

Captain Randolph Whitfield, the father of Prince Emanuele, of Savoia, died at his seat, Castle Habrook, Moravia, Wednesday.

Henry Stoy and Kit Wilson will be tried for the railroad robbery near Fort Smith, Ark., but they are wanted in a dozen different states.

Lieutenant Schroeder and T. B. Mason were examined at the navy department Wednesday for promotion as lieutenant commanders.

In consequence of the financial position of Spain, a premium of $1 is now being paid on every English sovereign at Gibraltar. This seriously interferes with trade.

Admirals from Japan say a second invasion of Korea has occurred, and the death of two government engineers, who had gone to inspect it.

The Pacific Smelting and Mining works at Pacific, Cal., were destroyed by fire Thursday morning. The loss is expected to be $100,000 or $150,000 at least. The buildings were all insured. Counterfeiter Eberle, a die-hard of thirty years, was sentenced to a term of fifteen years.

The Dreyfus, the distinguished French economist of the automobile school, who had been confined in the New York seaport court in favor of the First national bank of Chicago, was released yesterday. James E. Campbell, a well-known attorney, was present.

A judgment has been entered in the New York superior court in favor of the First national bank of Chicago, and James E. Campbell, a well-known attorney, was present.

At Louisville, Ky., while Edward Hayes, aged 39, was serving a policy of insurance with some difficulty, he was struck on the head with a lead ball and killed. His wife's evidence to the contrary could not yet be known.

The Louisville club will be permitted to play bridge games in the future, and Louisville city council Thursday night passed an ordinance annexing the hill park formerly in the town of Parkland, to the city of Louisville.

At Bloomington, Ill., Jas. R. Callan, aged 23, proprietor of the Union depot lunch counter, was shot, probably fatally, by his stepson, John Farrell. Callan had been in the habit of abusing his invalid wife, Farrell's mother.

At a meeting of the New York chapter of commerce a resolution was adopted by a majority of the members to study the currency question and report at the next regular session of congress.

It was removed at San Francisco Friday that a revolution had broken out in Australia, and that independence had been declared. The rumour created considerable excitement for a time, but little credence, however, was given the rumor.

Lloyd B. Collett, late constable of Elkins, Randolph county, was arrested at Philmont, W. Va., and was sent home Wednesday. He was accused with numerous depredations, and he was arrested, and he was held in confinement.

McDonald, of the 10th Massachusetts, his commission having been advised by mail of the arrival of the Albatross at St. Paul, Kodak Island, Alaska. The Albatross is one of the patrol fleet in the Arctic sea beyond.

John Six, 25, was run over and killed by a passenger train at Stanley, Conn., near New Haven. He was drunk and laid down on the track. The tops of his head was cut off and he was otherwise mangled. He leaves a wife and family.

The meeting of anarchists at the Widde theater, New York, called for Friday night to protest the Chinese anarchist, Noche, and Fischer, was stopped by order of Superintendent of Police Stevens.

Miss Winona De Kenzy, a young Polish woman, became infatuated with a prints, and because the latter did not reciprocate, Friday she committed suicide in Brussels. Some say that the man in the case is Victor Napoleon, the exiled French prince.

Gen. Hugh L. Farley, a distinguished Confederate veteran and now adjutant-general of South Carolina, published an open letter denouncing Senator Frank Seaman as a traitor and a scoundrel. The letter, which is signed, A. S. Seaman, is addressed to the editor of the Advertiser.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

Two children fatally burned. Little Sons, Ark., July 8.—Two children of Mrs. A. Brown, a boy aged 3 and a girl aged 1, were fatally burned in this city Friday.

A HOLOCAUST.

The Cold Storage Warehouses at the World's Fair

Takes Fire and Causes the Destruction of About 40 People.

The Victims at Work on a Balloon Half Way Up the Tower. Their Legs Eighteen Feet in the Air.

Falls and Crushes the Roof.

The Fire Department.

The Fire Department.